BROOKLYN LOSES TO BOSTON

Pittsburg Wins From St. Louis, and Cubs and Reds

Philadelphia, July 4—Philadelphia knocked New York out of first place by winning this afternoon's game by 7 to 5. When play started Philadelphia. New York and Chicago were in a triple tie for the lead in the National League race. The home team won the contest by pounding Crandali's dealivery hard, Luderus getting two home runs and a single off him. In the seventh inning Crandali was knocked uncorscious by a line drive off Dooin's bat, the bail hitting the pitcher in the head. Marquard took Crandali's place. Right Fielder Walsh was overcome by the heat near the end of the game and had to be carried from the field New York.

and winning the afternoon contest in a wolkover 11 to 1. Both games were witnessed by the largest crowds of the season.

In the first game, Stark was matched against Mayberry, and the veteran had little on the Cieveland youngster. The Bugs bunched hits in the first inning, and pushed two runs over the disk. Norfolk's lone run came in the second. In the afternoon game Hanks was hit all over the lot, and was replaced by Morgan, who fared a little better. The scores:
